Message from Ms Cutting

This week, on Monday, year six went to Bewdley museum as an enrichment to their topic on the World Wars. The children thoroughly enjoyed learning about the Blitz during World War II and had the opportunity to dress up in clothing from the era. Year six staff were impressed by the behaviour of the children who represented Olive Hill wonderfully.

On Tuesday, we were all entertained by Saltmine Theatre. The children enjoying watching their play which was designed to introduce the British Values of Law, Individual Liberty and Mutual Respect. Years four, five and six followed this up with workshops in the afternoon. Saltmine themselves kindly commented on the calm and purposeful atmosphere in school.

Lastly, a special mention needs to go to Reception who joined the rest of the school in the hall for the first time in assembly. Their behaviour was excellent. Well done to all the children and staff for helping them settle so quickly into Olive Hill.
